

Marsha E. E. Malinowski
67 Park Avenue
New York, NY 10016
917.836.6065
mem@marshamalinowski.com

Work Experience:

February 1986 - May 2012

Senior Vice President, Sotheby's New York

- Senior Specialist in charge of manuscripts worldwide, Department of Books and Manuscripts
- Licensed Auctioneer
- Managed and coordinated all auction sale catalogues for Fine Books and Manuscripts sales in New York

May 2012 - Present

President and CEO, Marsha Malinowski Fine Books & Manuscripts, LLC

- Appraisal, advisory, auction and media services to private clients, corporations and institutions

July 2012 - January 2018

Director, Books and Manuscripts Auction Department, Profiles in History

- Seek, research, and catalogue fine books and manuscripts for auction sales as Senior Consultant

March 2013 - Present

President and CEO, Malinowski & Associates

- Fine Art advisory services to private clients, corporations and institutions

Education:

September 1978 - May 1982

Wellesley College, Wellesley, MA

- B. A. in French and Latin

September 1982 - May 1983

Brown University, Providence, RI

- M. A. in Italian History

May 1983 - January 1986

Brown University, Providence, RI

- Doctoral Program in Italian History

Languages:

French, Latin, Italian, Polish, Spanish

Organizations and Affiliations:

- Grolier Club
- Manuscript Society
- Wellesley College Friends of Art
- ArtTable
- New York Botanical Garden - Library Visiting Committee